5.5. We may ask you to continue or update your marketing preferences if you instruct us to provide further services in the future, or if there are changes in the law, regulation, or the structure of our business.

6. Who We Share Your Personal Data With

6.1. We routinely share personal data with:-

- Professional advisers who we instruct on your behalf or refer you to, e.g. Barristers, medical professionals, accountants, tax advisors or other experts;
- Other third parties, where necessary, to carry out your instructions, e.g. your mortgage provider or HM Land Registry in the case of a property transaction or Companies House;
- Our insurers and brokers;
- External auditors, e.g. in relation to ISO accreditation and the audit of our accounts;
- Our bank; and
- External service suppliers, representatives and agents that we use to make our business more efficient

6.2. We only allow our service providers to handle your personal data if we are satisfied they take appropriate measures to protect your personal data. We also impose contractual obligations on service providers relating to ensure they can only use your personal data to provide services to us and to you.

- 6.3. We may disclose and exchange information with law enforcement agencies and regulatory bodies to comply with our legal and regulatory obligations.
- 6.4. We may also need to share some personal data with other parties, such as potential buyers of some or all of our business or during a re-structuring. Usually, information will be anonymised but this may not always be possible. The recipient of the information will be bound by confidentiality obligations.

7. Where Your Personal Data Is Held

- 7.1. Information may be held at our offices and those of our third party agencies, service providers, representatives and agents as described above (see above 'Who We Share Your Personal Data With').
- 7.2. Some of these third parties may be based outside the European Economic Area. For more information, including on how we safeguard your personal data when this occurs, see below 'Transferring Your Personal Data Out of the EEA'.

8. How Long Your Personal Data Will Be Kept

- 8.1. We will keep your personal data after we have finished advising or acting for you. We will do so for one of the following reasons:-
 - To respond to any questions, complaints or claims made by you or on your behalf;

- Let us have proof of your identity and address, e.g. a copy of your driving licence or passport and a recent utility or credit card bill;
- Let us know what right you want to exercise and the information to which your request relates

11. Keeping Your Personal Data Secure

11.1. We have appropriate security measures to prevent personal data from being accidentally lost, or used or accessed unlawfully. We limit access to your personal data to those who have a genuine business need to access it. Those proceeding your information will do so only in an authorised manner and are subject to a duty of confidentiality.

11.2. We have procedures in place to deal with any suspected data security breach. We will notify you and any applicable regulator of a suspected data security breach where we are legally required to do so.

11.3. If you want detailed information from Get Safe Online on how to protect your information and your computers and devices against fraud, identity theft, viruses and many other online problems, please visit www.getsafeonline.org. Get Safe Online is supported by HM Government and leading businesses.

12. How To Complain

- 12.1. We hope that we or our Data Protection Officer can resolve any query or concern you may raise about our use of your information.
- 12.2. The General Data Protection Regulation also gives you right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority, in particular in the European Union (or European Economic Area) state where you work, normally live or where any alleged infringement of data protection laws occurred. The supervisory authority in the UK is the Information Commissioner who may be contacted at <https://ico.org.uk/concerns> or by telephone on 0303 123 1113.
